Old Business

Update of the CURE grant was given by the Clerk. The full reimbursements have been made..

The Village website has been set up and online payments can be made. Customers were notified how they can access it through the newsletter in the February bill . All the ordinances have not been uploaded yet but it is a work in progress.

Clerk reported of the cost for a separate propane tank from South Central FS. It can be purchased over a 7 yr period and 1 payment due in October each year. Another option came up that a used 500 gal tank might be available for the Village to purchase. It was decided to check this out before purchasing new.

New Business

There was some discussion on the Civic Center having raffles to raise some money for our Community and Building account. An ordinance will be prepared so that this can be done. There was discussion of different items and more ideas will be discussed at the next meeting.
