Old Business

There was discussion about the playground equipment and the welders opinion about repair. It was decided that it appeared to be stable with some repairs for safety around the legs of the swings for now. New swings were purchased, new boards for the merry- go- round.

New Business

Mayor Mitchell received a complaint regarding people parking along the city roads. After discussion it was determined there was not an ordinance against it. It was decided if drive-ways were not being blocked and if it wasn't a fire hazard, the two parties would need to work out their differences.

Their was discussion about the Farm Auction that has been held each year in Iola. The auctioneer planned to postpone the auction until later in the summer and deciding on a place was in question. It was decided that offerring to have it at the civic center could be beneficial allowing us to serve drinks and lunch.

Trustee Michael Griffy will be moving to Farina so he will be ineligible to remain on the board. So a replacement will need to be appointed.

Motion was made to pay monthly bills by Kevin Horath and Michael Bryant 2nd , all were in favor.

The civic center raffle had ended and all sold tickets were turned in. The drawing was held. The winners were Tim Fulk 1st place , Harold Jones 2nd , Darren Hiestand 3rd , Larry Frost 4th.
